Panelist Rodney G. Hood, M.D.

Over the past 30 years, Dr. Hood has researched and lectured extensively on the historic aspects of race, ethnicity, genetics, and racism in medicine and the impact on today's health inequities. He currently serves on several foundation boards that are focused on solutions to eliminate health inequities. He is the president of the Multicultural Health Foundation in San Diego, serves on the board of the Alliance Healthcare Foundation, is chair of the W. Montague Cobb/NMA Health Institute and is a long time La Mesa resident.

Facilitator Gail A. Nugent, MSW

A leader in conflict resolution for over 25 years, Gail brings a unique perspective and breadth of experience to any issue. She has worked with thousands of individuals in more than 100 governmental and non-governmental settings, serving as a mediator, facilitator, dispute resolution consultant, system designer, curriculum developer and trainer. She has extensive work experience with a variety of California agencies and school districts handling complex and emotionally charged issues.

Panelist Leda Albright

Leda has designed and delivered training in a range of human service topics, including diversity and inclusion, the Equity Lens, and the Culturally Competent Professional. She has facilitated system modifications with numerous Southern California counties, including as a statewide Director for Strategies 2.0 at the Children's Bureau of Southern California. She received her Bachelor Degree in Human Relations and Organizational Behavior from the University of San Francisco and a Master's in Biblical Studies from Bethel Graduate School of Theology.
